

Education

All students deserve an education tailored to meet his or her unique learning needs. Some children with autism need additional supports at school to reach their full potential. It is important to learn how your child may be supported at school to ensure that he or she is learning, participating and thriving

These resources can be found on the ECHO Autism Website at echoautism.org or you may scan the QR Code to go directly to the resources.

Scan the QR Code with your phone camera

Toolkits and Guides

- School Community Toolkit
- How to Use Visual Supports to Help Your Child with Autism

Individualized Education Program (IEP)

- Individualized Education Program Summary, Process & Tips

Special Education Law

- How IDEA Protects You and Your Child
- How to Dispute the IEP
- Wrightslaw

ECHO Autism Communities Webinars

- Back to School
- Back to School Follow-Up

Missouri Resources

- MPACT Parent Training & Information
- Parent's Guide to Special Education

*Please note that this is not an exhaustive list of resources and they may be modified and updated on the ECHO Autism Website over time.