

Family Support

When a person is diagnosed with autism it effects every member of the family in different ways. Learning more about autism and how to support each other can be helpful as you walk through the autism journey together.

These resources can be found on the ECHO Autism Website at echoautism.org or you may scan the QR Code to go directly to the resources.

Scan the QR Code with your phone camera

Scan Me

Guides and Toolkits for Family & Friends

- A Parent's Guide to Autism
- A Sibling's Guide to Autism
- A Grandparent's Guide to Autism
- A Friend's Guide to Autism
- Advocacy Toolkit

Financial and Housing Resources

- Financial Planning Toolkit
- Housing and Residential Supports Toolkit

Connect to Resources and Information

- The Autism Response Team (ART) can answer your questions, connect you with tools and resources, and help you find autism services and supports in your community.

Webinar, Expert Video & Blog Post

- How to Support Your Child's Development at Home
- Common Medical Conditions in Autism
- Expert Video: After the Diagnosis
- Expert Video: A Diagnosis Is Not About the Label

Missouri Resources

- Missouri Family to Family - A Statewide Family Resource
- Other
 - Is It Autism and if so, What Next? A Guide for Adults

*Please note that this is not an exhaustive list of resources and they may be modified and updated on the ECHO Autism Website over time.